Events & Celebrations

Thank you for considering The Bombay Cricketer's Club for your event. Our venue is ideal for small groups from 8 up to 35 people. Our team of talented staff will provide exceptional service that will compliment the high quality food and beverage menus on offer at The Bombay Cricketer's Club.

The Bombay Cricketer's Club offers all groups of 9 or more our Chef's Premium Banquet. A sumptuous 8 course shared banquet that showcases the best dishes from our seasonal menu with matching sides, rice and condiments. It is our experience that the Chef's Premium Banquet suits all occasions and reflects our love of diversity and the shared dining experience. Our talented Chefs can tailor our banquet offering to accommodate any dietary requirements upon request.

We have two sittings available for group bookings. Our first sitting is available to commence between 5pm and 6.30pm and is allocated approximately 2 hours. Our second sitting is available from 8pm with groups invited to stay on until our 11pm closing time.

BEVERAGE OPTIONS

The Bombay Cricketer's Club is famous for its unique and original cocktail list and features a comprehensively stocked bar including a selection of rare gins, aged rums and premium whiskeys. Our wine list has been hand picked following our menu flavours profile, including both popular and more unique varieties.

We recommend selecting beverages in advance to ensure our best service with adequate stock of your favourite drop. We are happy to tailor beverage packages and more extensive consumption tabs according to your preferences. A signature cocktail to enhance your day adds a unique touch to delight your guests.

For further assistance with your beverage arrangements, please contact our team to design an offering that perfectly complements your event.

Full list consumption tabs are also available, allowing your guests to make their individual selections from our extensive beverage list. Please note, only one account will be offered per table. We can accept split payments; however, individual payments can take some time to process.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

A deposit of $200 will be required to confirm your booking of up to 20 persons. Your deposit will be deducted from your total balance upon final payment. For groups of 20 or more, full payment of food component is required 48 hours prior of arrival to confirm your event. Consumption tabs or individual drink purchases can be paid upon departure; however, only one bill will be provided. It is suggested that if patrons are paying individually for drink purchases, they may wish to bring cash or pay the host directly to contribute to their share of beverages on the day.

For groups of less than 20, all food and beverage charges can be paid on departure; however, only one bill will be provided. If patrons are paying individually for food and drink purchases, they may wish to bring cash or pay the host directly to contribute to their share on the day.

We welcome exclusive use bookings for groups larger than 36 guests. Depending on the style of celebration, groups of this size may need to incorporate several of our dining spaces. Please contact our team to discuss exclusive use options and your perfect celebration.

A full refund is offered when cancelling your booking with more than 7 day's notice. 50% of your deposit will be refunded when cancelling your booking with 3 - 7 day's notice. Deposits are non-refundable when cancelling your booking with less than 72 hour's notice.

Final numbers, menu options, dietary requirements and full food payment is due 48 hours prior to your booking. Final numbers will be charged regardless of attendee numbers. Additional guests will only be accommodated where possible with less than 48hrs notice.

The Bombay Cricketer's Club has two sittings. Our first sitting is only available for 2 hours with tables being booked between 5:30pm and 6:15pm. Our second sitting starts at 8pm with tables available until 11pm.

A small service fee (gratuity) of 5% is applied to your food & beverage bill for our team of professional service staff that will look after you and your guests on the night as they rely on tips as a part of their income. This fee is discretionary, based on receiving an all-round excellent experience and may be removed upon request.
